I would like to thank you for assisting me with my computer.
You have a good knowledge of your field and showed great competence in your work.
I would have no problems recommending you to others that may need technical or computer support.

I would have lost a lot of very important work had it not been for you. I am pleased you advised me to leave it alone until you arrived. God knows what I would have if you had not been available.

I look forward to getting further technical support from you in the future.

Once again thank you for all your help and support.

Yours sincerely,

Mr P. [REDACTED]
